The Daily Quote

"House Speaker John Boehner, in a move that carries political risks, plans to bring an ambitious transportation bill to the House floor...despite the resistance of some conservatives. The measure's failure would be a blow to Mr. Boehner's leadership, and he is scrambling to win support. ...The Club For Growth and Heritage Action, two prominent small-government groups, have attacked the measure, with the Club for Growth calling it 'a remarkably bloated and inefficient piece of legislation.' Some Republicans agree. 'It's too big,' said Rep. Jeff Flake (R., Ariz.). 'This isn't a good thing. It's not a good direction.'"
